§ 682.102 Obtaining and repaying a loan.

(a) Stafford loan application. Generally, to obtain a Stafford loan, a student completes an application and submits it to the school for certification. After the school certifies the application, the application is submitted to a participating lender. If the lender decides to make the loan, the lender obtains a loan guarantee from a guaranty agency or the Secretary.

(b) SLS loan application. Generally, to obtain an SLS loan, a student completes an application and submits it to the school for certification. After the school certifies the application, the application is submitted to a participating lender. If the lender decides to make the loan, the lender obtains a loan guarantee from a guaranty agency or the Secretary.

(c) PLUS loan application. Generally, to obtain a PLUS loan, both the student and the parent complete an application and submit it to the school for certification. After the school certifies the application, the application is submitted to a participating lender. If the lender decides to make the loan, the lender obtains a loan guarantee from a guaranty agency or the Secretary.

(d) Consolidation loan application. Generally, to obtain a Consolidation loan, a borrower completes an application and submits it to a lender holding at least one of the borrower's loans to be consolidated. If all the holders of loans selected for consolidation by the borrower refuse to make a Consolidation loan, the borrower may submit the application to any other lender participating in the Consolidation Loan Program. In the case of a married couple seeking a Consolidation loan, only the holders for one of the applicants must be contacted for consolidation. In the case of a married couple seeking a Consolidation loan, only the holders for one of the applicants must be contacted for consolidation. If a lender decides to make the loan, the lender obtains a loan guarantee from a guaranty agency or the Secretary.

(e) Repaying a loan—(1) General. Generally, the borrower is obligated to repay the full amount of the loan, late fees, collection costs chargeable to the borrower, and any interest not payable by the Secretary. The borrower's obligation to repay is cancelled if the borrower dies, becomes totally and permanently disabled, or has that obligation discharged in bankruptcy. The borrower's obligation to repay a PLUS loan is cancelled if the student, on whose behalf the parent borrowed, dies. The borrower's obligation to repay all or a portion of his or her loan may be cancelled if the borrower is unable to complete his or her program of study because the school closed or the borrower's eligibility to borrow was falsely certified by the school. The obligation to repay all or a portion of a loan may be forgiven for borrowers who enter certain areas of the teaching or nursing professions or perform certain kinds of national or community service.

(2) Stafford loan repayment. Generally, a borrower is not required to make any principal payments on a Stafford loan during the time the borrower is in school. In most cases, the Secretary pays the interest on the borrower's behalf during the time the borrower is in school. When the borrower ceases to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis, a grace period begins during which no principal payments are required, and the Secretary continues to make interest payments on the borrower's behalf. At the end of the grace period, the repayment period begins. During the repayment period, the borrower pays both the principal and the interest accruing on the loan.

(3) SLS loan repayment. Generally, the repayment period for an SLS loan begins immediately on the day of the last disbursement of the loan proceeds by the lender. The first payment of principal and interest on an SLS loan is due from the borrower within 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed unless a borrower who is also a Stafford loan borrower, but who has not yet entered repayment on the Stafford loan, requests that commencement of repayment on the SLS loan be deferred until the borrower's grace period on the Stafford loan expires.

(4) PLUS loan repayment. Generally, the repayment period for a PLUS loan begins on the day the loan is disbursed by the lender. The first payment of principal and interest on a PLUS loan is due from the borrower within 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed.

(5) Consolidation loan repayment. Generally, the repayment period for a Consolidation loan begins on the day the loan is disbursed. The first payment of principal and interest on a Consolidation loan is due from the borrower within 60 days after the borrower's liability on all loans being consolidated has been discharged.

(6) Deferral of repayment. Repayment of principal on a FFEL program loan may be deferred under the circumstances described in § 682.210.

(7) Default. If a borrower defaults on a loan, the guarantor reimburses the lender for the amount of its loss. The guarantor then collects the amount owed from the borrower.
